Editorial – Volume 3 – n° 01- 2025

We are pleased to present the latest issue of the Global Health Law Journal-GHLJ, which not only contains six exceptional articles, but also showcases the academic research of our master's in health law students at Santa Cecilia University.

Professors, master's students, postgraduate students and health professionals also contribute in an extraordinary way to the Global Health Law Journal-GHLJ, and it is a privilege to share their own academic work with you all.

The Global Health Law Journal-GHLJ is a biannual production, an open access, peer reviewed, and the outcome of a collaborative, widespread, and international effort.

The GHLJ strives to offer an opportunity for interdisciplinary discussion on topics in health law, international health law, comparative health law, health policy, health cases, medical, and biomedical law.

The Journal targets a broad and diverse audience of academicians, professionals, and students in Law, Medicine, Biomedicine, as well as policy makers, law operators, and legislators in health care.

Global Health Law Journal

Articles must be related to health law, international health law, comparative health law, health policy, health cases, medical and biomedical law, Medicine, and Biomedicine.

Articles can be submitted in English, Spanish, French, Italian or Portuguese.

Submissions to the Global Health Law Journal are peer-reviewed by our distinguished Editorial Board and reviewers, consisting of internationally recognized experts.

In short, the Global Health Law Journal is looking to become a dynamic and engaging forum for comparative and interdisciplinary research and commentary.

It has been created and raised in an innovative, cooperative and participatory spirit, and will always continue its commitment to these values.

We hope you will enjoy the Global Health Law Journal, and that you can contribute to future issues.
